

MASTER OF ARTS IN EDUCATION

TEACHING

The fully online Master of Arts in Education: Teaching program provides professional and personal growth to aspiring and practicing educators. Through rigorous online pedagogy and flexible asynchronous learning principles, the program's special emphasis on Education Innovation and Improvement creates a distinctive academic experience where graduate students engage in hands-on, critical analysis and application of contemporary teaching and learning practices.

Students who enroll in Capital's MAEd: Teaching program will be able to:

- Exhibit thorough content and pedagogical knowledge.
- Demonstrate and apply knowledge of diversity in learners, learning, and assessment.
- Demonstrate and implement knowledge of curriculum and general pedagogy to impact student learning.
- Communicate and collaborate with key stakeholders to create an inclusive and engaging education environment.
- Evidence the professional dispositions, ethics, and responsibilities of a teacher.

What can you do with a degree in this academic area?

- Principal or Administrator
- Special Education Teacher
- Educational Coordinator
- Educational Consultant
- Curriculum Developer
- Instructional Coordinator
- Advance your teaching career

100%
ONLINE

36 CREDIT HOURS

STUDENT TO FACULTY RATIO

12:1

COMPLETE IN AS LITTLE AS ONE YEAR

Capital University

School of Education

FOR MORE INFO:
www.capital.edu/maed

TUITION AND FINANCIAL AID

- Tuition is assessed on a per credit hour basis. The tuition rate for the 2023-24 academic year is $686* per credit hour
- Eligible for fee waiver

*Costs are estimates only and are subject to change due to course sequencing, annual fee increases, etc.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

- Online application
- Résumé or Curriculum Vitae
- Official transcripts from all post-secondary institutions
- Essay
- Ohio Teaching License
- Three Letters of Recommendation

Master of Arts in Education: Teaching Essay Question (choose one):

1. Why do you want to pursue a masters degree in Education at Capital University?
2. How does your philosophy of education align with the mission and vision of the School of Education at Capital University?
3. How will a masters degree from the School of Education at Capital University help you advance your career and personal goals?

ONE-YEAR COURSE SEQUENCE

SUMMER SEMESTER	FALL SEMESTER	SPRING SEMESTER
EDUC 512: Research Methods and Design I (4 credits)	EDUC 522: Research and Methods of Inquiry II (4 credits)	EDUC 552: Education Change (4 credits)
EDUC 532: Curriculum, Instruction and Assessment: Theory into Practice (4 credits)	EDUC 542: Special Topics: Contemporary Issues in Teaching and Learning (4 credits)	EDUC 582: Education Policy and Reform (4 credits)
EDUC 562: Principles of Leadership (4 credits)	EDUC 572: Schools as Organizations (4 credits)	EDUC 699: Capstone Research (4 credits)

TWO-YEAR COURSE SEQUENCE

SUMMER SEMESTER I	FALL SEMESTER I	SPRING SEMESTER I
EDUC 512: Research Methods and Design I (4 credits)	EDUC 542: Special Topics: Contemporary Issues in Teaching and Learning (4 credits)	EDUC 522: Research and Methods of Inquiry II (4 credits)
EDUC 532: Curriculum, Instruction and Assessment: Theory into Practice (4 credits)	EDUC 562: Principles of Education Leadership (4 credits)	EDUC 572: Schools as Organizations (4 credits)
SUMMER SEMESTER II	FALL SEMESTER II
EDUC 552: Education Change (4 credits)	EDUC 699: Capstone Research (4 credits)
EDUC 582: Education Policy and Reform (4 credits)

LET'S CONNECT