

Columbus Crew Soccer Camp in Association with Capital University July 6 – July 10, 2009

In association with the Capital University Soccer Program, the Columbus Crew will be holding a skills camp focusing on various aspects of the game including dribbling, passing/receiving, shooting, and defending among others. Each morning campers will be put through a technical and tactical training environment based on The Crew Curriculum followed by small sided games to provide the proper understanding of the skills needed to further their development in the game. In addition, our instructors will touch on other areas of importance that will aide in their development such as nutrition and conditioning and provide the very best example of what it takes to be a quality soccer player, dependable teammate, and a good citizen.
