Cultivating Courageous Communities

Happy Global Diversity Month!

This October, the Office of Diversity and Inclusion encourages all students, faculty, staff, administrators, alumni, and community partners to find ways to celebrate diverse cultures and the accomplishments of those recognized worldwide. Global Diversity Month is a time to honor the rich tapestry of traditions, experiences, and perspectives that strengthen our community and connect us to the broader world.

Whether through cultural events, meaningful conversations, or acts of solidarity, we invite everyone to participate in fostering an environment where every identity is valued and celebrated. Let's come together to learn, reflect, and grow, because diversity is not just something we recognize; it's something we live every day.
