

Capital University

25th Annual Symposium on Undergraduate Scholarship 5th Annual Graduate Research Forum

TUESDAY,
APRIL 20, 2021

7:00 pm

The Marye J. ('54) and Richard A. ('51, H'84) Boyd Undergraduate Research Symposium Virtual Keynote Panel Discussion

Engaging Students Across the University: Distinguished Capital University faculty and staff will share some of the engaging work that Capital students do.

Join Keynote:

<https://capital.zoom.us/j/96655751313>

WEDNESDAY,
APRIL 21, 2021

11:30 am – 1:00 pm

Virtual Student Poster Session

1:30 pm – 4:00 pm

Virtual Student Oral Presentations

Join Symposium:

Dr. Jennifer Faison Kelly is a tenured, full professor in the School of Education and Associate Dean of Clinical Partnerships at Capital University where she has been employed since 1999. She teaches courses in pedagogy and special education.

Ms. Abbey Rutschilling is the Associate Director in Capital University's Office of Student and Community Engagement. She supports the Bonner Leader Program, the Cap Cupboard, student organizations, and community engagement efforts across the university.

Rev. Julie Hutson is the Director of Contextual and Experiential Formation at Trinity Lutheran Seminary where she directs and supervises all aspects of the three components of contextual formation at TLS: Leadership in Context (field placement), Clinical Pastoral Education, and Internship.

Professor Dan Kobil joined Capital in 1987. He currently teaches constitutional law, criminal procedure, and comparative constitutional law. He has researched and published extensively on the subject of executive clemency, especially as it relates to the death penalty. He also writes on First Amendment Law.

Dr. Deborah Shields is a nursing professor at Capital University, beginning here in 1980. She is a board certified Advanced Holistic Nurse, a perioperative staff nurse and system educator at OhioHealth, and a qualified Therapeutic Touch practitioner and teacher.