When completing the FAFSA, you are required to provide prior-prior year income/asset information and in some cases, this information changes or is not a good representation of your family’s financial situation. If you are experiencing a hardship or other situation that is not reflected on the FAFSA, we may be able to reevaluate your financial need. Please note that not all circumstance reviews will result in additional financial aid.

Instructions:
Please check the box next to each step as you complete it. If you are a dependent student, as defined on the FAFSA, complete all requested information about you and your parent(s). If you are considered independent per the 2019-20 FAFSA, please submit information about yourself and your spouse, if applicable.

Step 1
Have you filed your FAFSA for 2019-20?  Yes ______ No ______
Special Circumstance Reviews cannot be completed until we have received a valid FAFSA

Step 2
Submit a detailed explanation of your circumstances. This statement must be signed and dated by you and your parent, if you are a dependent.

Step 3
If your circumstances relate to a loss of income, please estimate all income received between July 1, 2018 through June 30, 2019
