

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

Instructor of School Counseling Education

Posted July 24, 2018

Capital University invites qualified candidates to apply for a position in our growing Counselor Education program at the rank of Clinical Professor. This is a full-time, non-tenure track faculty position.

The Capital University Counselor Education program is a hybrid-format graduate program. The program is currently undergoing a CACREP self-study for accreditation in the coming year. The position will be responsible for a 3/3 course load, with some student academic advising and program oversight possible. Although research and service are not a requirement of the position, they are encouraged and supported.

Position Requirements:

- An earned doctorate in Counseling or Counselor Education and Supervision from a CACRREP accredited program OR an earned doctorate in a CORE-accredited doctoral program with employment as a full-time faculty member in a counselor preparation program for a minimum of one full academic year before July 2013.
- Experience as a Professional School Counselor or Clinical Counselor.
- A record of successful professional experience or successful experience teaching in higher education.
- Professional identity within the counseling professional as evidenced through membership in professional organizations relevant to counseling.
- Licensed or license-eligible as a professional counselor (LPC) in Ohio and/or as a professional school counselor through the Ohio Department of Education.
- Evidence of ability to teach and work with persons from diverse backgrounds.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Excellent written and oral communication skills.
- Dispositional skills which fit the mission of Capital University and the Counseling Program.
- Evidence of scholarly production.
- Experience with hybrid learning environments.

Capital University is committed to increasing the diversity of the Capital community and curriculum. This commitment includes Capital's dedication to the development of faculty and staff who are committed to inclusive practices in teaching, learning, working and all other campus and community interactions. Candidates who can contribute to that goal are particularly encouraged to apply.

Application materials should include cover letter, curriculum vitae, three letters of reference, and appropriate evidence of teaching effectiveness.

All materials should be submitted to:

Dr. Michael Lewis
Mlewis7@capital.edu

Application review will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Capital University offers a rich benefits package that includes medical, dental, vision, retirement, family education benefits, short-term and long-term disability, life insurance and free parking.

For more information on Capital University, visit our website at www.capital.edu.

Please complete the optional confidential data survey at: <http://www.zoomerang.com/Survey/WEB22A2B2784NM>

Capital University is an equal opportunity employer, and supports a diverse and inclusive campus community. Capital University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, sexual orientation, religion, sex, gender, age, disability, veteran status, or other characteristics protected by the law.